

“

One of the few low budget travel books that encourage and enable seniors to travel alone and off the beaten track.

”

Georgia Straight
Vancouver, BC

Marco Polo on the OAS* A Low-Budget World Travel Guide For All Ages

*Old Age Security

Ben Maartman

This practical travel guide by an award-winning CBC writer, now retired, takes you to fifty countries and offers over five hundred tips that will add to the enjoyment of your travels — and save you money.

TRAVEL / SENIORS

Trade Paperback / 5.5" x 8.5" / 224 pages
B & W photos / Illustrations by Blanche Maartman
Fogduckers Press
ISBN 0-9694040-2-6 / $14.95 US / $17.95 CDN

Other available titles by Ben Maartman:

The Iron Bowl Blues

Teaching ESL in China during the '80s
ISBN 0-9694040-0-X / $9.95 US / $11.95 CDN

The Strange Thing About Miracles

Heroin, prison and parole in Vancouver, BC
ISBN 0-9694040-1-8 / $7.95 US / $9.95 CDN

A Lovely Letter From Cecie

John Graham Gillis

The 1907–1915 Vancouver diary and World War I letters of Wallace Chambers give a rare glimpse into the world of middle-class young people in the Vancouver of the early 1900s.

MEMOIRS / WW I / ROMANCE

Trade Paperback / 6" x 9" / 192 pages
B & W photos
Peanut Butter Publishing
ISBN 0-89716-815-1 / $9.95 US / $14.95 CDN